Cosponsored by the Washington College Department of Theatre and Dance and the Starr Center for the Study of the American Experience

Re-Entry: A Performance Tribute to Veterans is a multidisciplinary production. The show highlights the stories of a select group of veterans from World War II to present day through interviews, letters, and their own works of art. Re-Entry blends dance, music, artifacts, oral history, and poetry. It is a collaboration between the Starr Center for the Study of the American Experience StoryQuest Oral History Program and choreographer A.T. Moffett from the Department of Theatre & Dance.

There is no need to RSVP to Dinner or the Performance Tribute. We look forward to seeing you!
